

Mr. Jared Asplundh – Executive Vice President, Secretary

Lockheed Martin Aeronautics – Subcontract Administrator

Jared Asplundh is a Subcontract Administrator for Lockheed Martin. He has three years' experience of Enterprise Resource Planning implementation to government entities. He is an active participant and board member to many veterans' affairs groups in Dallas, including the Air Force Association—Seidel chapter and the Navy League. In 2012, he graduated Penn State University with three degrees in Supply Chain Management, German, and International Politics.